

This service blueprint is a visual representation of Nation Capital Region's purchase card approval process. It displays how touchpoints such as, email and the C2 application, and support systems, align to the experience of requesters, approvers, budget analysts, and reconcilers.

